Hello to Kyle Proehl and everyone that read my post.

Thanks for the new year greetings and even though I'm starting to break away from my association with The papyrus collective I'm trying to figure out a way to continue to blog at BTB, any thoughts?

Kyle, could you or someone out there please transcribe "A New Walk" for me? I'm ready to start the New Walk project for @risk youth and that post will be a great way for me to introduce it. Thanks so much and let's make 2013 our Building Year.
