

* ANOTHER DAY
* OF Solitary -
* CONFINEMENT
* * * *

Hi there
I'm still in the hole Solitary Confinement.
I've not written anything new for all of you to read. So I thought I'd just got a few lines as to how my emotional state has been.

I have been a little depressed since I have very little to read. I'm taking medication for the depression.
I think it is helping a little bit.

I don't have much in my cell. They've taken all of my property and thrown it all away. I can't go to the inmate canteen either, because that privilege too was suspended - all because I refuse to take a cellie. So the Classification Committee extended my stay in the hole until 10-15-2014 - I hope I won't go crazy by then.

I need some reading material.
I would appreciate books very much please send them to. But the books must come from a James Collins E-81393
Vendor or Store...
