- "CLOSE THE QUAD!" / SEE NO EVIL, HEAR NO EVIL, SPEAK NO EVIL

Everyday now here at WallyWorld we hear the loudspeaker announcement, "Close The Quad! All Inmates Exit The Quad!", and we all know what it means. It means that the poor addicted prisoners who gave dirty urine tests to Zena The Warrior Princess, The Waffler, and Humpy, Dumpty Starter, are going to be escorted along the Quad to solitary confinement for becoming addicted here at drug riddled NorfolkWorld. But what it really means is that there is such a drug problem here, an uncontrollable drug problem - uncontrollable because it is the guards who are bringing the drugs in - that this "perp walk" of junkies has become an accepted part of the daily operations here at the gulag. The Warden, The Big Chorce, has given the Green Light to the Keystone Cops on the Inner Perimeter Suckurity Act to close the main walkway of the prison and parade the daily roundup of suboxone users up to solitary where they are "punished" for having a disease. None of the Oxygen Wasting scum who wear the tarnished DOC badge and "lug" in this poison are caught - none for quite a while - but poor Tommy The Addict and Billy The Junkie are caught for their fifth or sixth offense. The place is a drug den and addicted addicts leave out of here everyday to go to the street and rob some unsuspecting victim. The Superintendent's Investigator blames it all on the Commander of the IPS and the Commander of the IPS blames it on the Super's ~~live~~ investigator. Plausible deniability and Zena The Warrior Princess keeps checking peckers, mowing lady lawns, and dirtying up urines when she feels the need. Madness I tell you; madness. They need to put statues of those three monkeys, one covering his mouth, one covering his ears, and the other covering his eyes, atop the Gate House here so as people enter they get the message: At WallyWorld we see no evil, hear no evil, nor speak no evil. Evil guards lugging in evil poison, but they chose to make The Free Speech Warrior and The Lifers' Group the bad guys for inviting in Former Governor Michael S. Dukakis: see the letter that follows. These bastards and their subtle brain washing actually have some prisoners here thinking they have done something wrong when they invite in officials to see and hear about the abuse. We will never drink the kool aid here at Free Speech Central and will expose the evil monkeys with every chance we get. When they announce, "Close The Quad!", we will be shouting, "CLOSE THIS GULAG! END THE ABUSE AND THEFT OF TAXPAYER DOLLARS!!!"

See You:
