MESSAGE TO THE INCARCERATED GAY BLK MAN
by, Parallaxboi

Discription:

A thought provoking, eye opening delivery of several truths that are intentionally withheld from society about the origins of the reemergence of homophobia in prison, and how Winnie Mandela's visit with executed condemned prisoner Stanley Tookie Williams ignited, and exacerbated the horror against Queer inmates Statewide at the hands of corrupt guards and colluding inmates referring to themselves as brothers of Ajamu, and false claims of being the new leaders of the crips and the BLK race in prison. These are The Last Words of Parallaxboi.

(MESSAGE TO THE INCARCERATED GAY BLK MAN)

Although violence against queer people has been going on for many year's, I trace the new prison subcultural up tick in violence and exclusionary practices by self-proclaimed so-called active BLK subculture, to the meetings between Winnie Mandela and Stanley Tookie Williams just prior to His execution on California deathrow.

This venomous scheme grew leg's during a 1991 trial when Winnie represented herself, as she faced charge's that included kidnapping and murdering a 14 year old boy, arguing that she was trying to protect a number of youth from the homosexual overture's of a WHT Catholic Priest.

I personally asked Tookie/AJAMU if what Winnie had to say swayed his opinion about "Gay's like me"? He said, "no, but that doesn't mean other's won't run with it".

Now we see more Africans, and African/Americans echo Winnie Mandela's position, as if to somehow maintain what is falsely represented as African values.

After the execution of Ajamu, his words were manifested by those who falsely self-proclaim as the representative's of BLK condemned residents in collusion with the author's of the (Agreement to End the Hostilities between the races) which by default, in later years revealed itself as the (Agreement to End the Hostilities between the g×ngz), and it was that fine line of lack of attention to details that caused a lot of acts of betrayal against queer inmates Statewide, and Nationwide.

Steve Champion #C-58001 and Anthony Craig Ross #C-58000 sat at the table of manipulation posturing as the leadership voice of the BLK condemned population, while occupying Exercise Group Yard#1, a yard that is well known as the BLK sex offender yard, (see attached), and also themselves on death row for charges that include the rape of a victim, founded a new contradiction to the so-called standards of the concept of what being "solid" is @Ashker v. Brown & Lopez v. Brown law suit ,(via peace agreement).

I know that most of you are fed up with the attempted de-racing of queer BLK people by the unworthy, and while many of you loved Winnie Mandela before reading this work, I submit to you that:

- #1 She was herself misinformed
- #2 Our fellow Africans on Earth also suffer from intentional deprivation of knowledge
- #3 This is a new era where drug addicts collusion with corrupt guards is the new solid

Now Muslims, Christians, 5% Nation, Judaism, and Education, Self-help groups exclude queer inmate's openly without any regard for human dignity because the mind altering substances of the influence of ignorance, and the God of Jealousy, has caused our own people to view our self-defense as an attack on African values, without the presences of mind to invest in a mirror.

For what it's worth, know that other subcultural groups are also adversely effected by the false representations of the old-time Blue Notes in prison, and the weakest amongst all over the world who are the worst thing BLK people have produced, are so suffocated from the effects of megalomania fading into nothingness, that the consequences are now manifesting in the form of internal purging, yes African's v. African's v. African Americans v. The Values of each other.

Today your autonomous ideations are your responsibility, I'm calling on you to continue the direction of becoming the resources, with or without the approval of anyone with zero interest in the constructive development of each other, The Sound Mind Streamer is your safe space for the engagement of more affirmations to be discovered, addressed and created.

Winnie Mandela hated Catholic Priests, and WHT people that destroyed So.Africa, her rage against the oppressor possessed her heart, and it happens to a lot of us, yes, even me, so while how she misused her influence against queer people, so have we in moments in our own lives, for there are no clean hands, and I don't say it as an excuse, but as at least one of many reason's. WIN

Dear Closet,

The Sound Mind Streamer Media program is also designed to provide you access without exposure, you no longer need to openly display violent aggression towards the Village as a method to conceal yourself.

Nobody should be forced "OUT", yet nobody should be forced "IN", be it drugs, active affiliation, religious doctrine, family or race based influence, you matter. It doesn't take courage for you to be yourself, yet it does take being discouraged for you not to be, and phobia still means fear no matter what the circumstances, anxiety, panic, unsettling feelings of the unknown is pretty tough, yet, there is a greater consequence within when we participate in the very conduct that enslave and paralyze our heart's, because violence, and anti-queer campaigns are a choice, not your sexual orientation.

Just because people present as authority on other issues, it doesn't mean they are well versed about who and what you are, and to blindly follow the harmful ideations of hatred, also qualifies the follower as an agent of the same hate, as the closet was created out of the need for a safe space, not to be a strategic fox hole of war.

We lay with you, top, bottom, side by side, in love, in private, while in public we stand alone, in danger in prison, exiled away from you, and the scenery is applauded by the author's of division, while it appears that I'm the one who is alone, it is evident to me that it is you who remains lonely, while even on a crowded prison exercise yard.

The active slaves to religion and each other has betrayed us all, and we stand stronger in knowingness. We know the corrupt guards, the queer guards who are complicit and complacent, we know they all just want silence. But know this, the Sound Mind Streamer doesn't require you to come out of the closet, it does however require an opportunity to be the medium for comfort, affirmation, and celebration of self and each other, and exist as a spirit lifter.

Autonomously Yours!
