

I'd WAR! - (for her)
(Love)

I'd WAR with legions, to protect her health! -
As true as Truth shouldst speak of Love,
And thrive one heartbeat surpasses words wealth
To pluck lay everything lush, unwound one
A labor of Love, derives no labor
Who not!, WAR with Time - come what may therewith
To aid Gabbett such Love - I'd harbor
The will to make a way to her, henceforth!
I'd WAR with legions; WAR tribes & Armies!
To protect her honor when she's Love & True -
Or Love!, faithful love, calls forth chivalry
As true as Truth!, are these words from me true!
As much as I have eyes for Love, by God!
The art!, she who should be with I, my GARD!
3:02pm; 2/10/24

Kiesten

She bears a gift ~~fit for a king~~!, so ~~that~~ -
An hourglass ~~is~~ ~~not~~ ~~but~~ ~~a~~ ~~piece~~
Peace & ~~and~~ pieces me a pleasure by far,
To peruse such platinum Beauty & the Best pieces
She'd make ~~me~~ ~~appreciate~~ ~~her~~ ~~Love~~ ~~glory~~,
Oh!, how they'd love thee!, majestic as Art
I'd love thee fourfold as much as stories;
Possessive as Scorpio, bless her heart!,
To carry her to help or - ~~head~~ ^{harp} All time -
In Love!, thou can't place a cost upon her -
I'd love her sun-to - thy day's whispered chime,
Sonnet's music is moon-to - night's counter
By and far!, a masterpiece masterpiece!
As God's best choicer here in Sonnet's sweet piece - 3:29pm
2/10/24

Astronomical
(She should model)

I'd stake my Famous Poet of the Year
Award(s) on the line to wager thou most
As bestest art art articulant Dear
As soft as Poets speak! - Candles melt most ensilk as thou art gentle fortifies
Thy poetry pen's famous coats her fair
To give from thyself to immortalize
Her in the art (top the bestest's fair and gentlety - soul gently she melts
In truth off belief! - she's stern poetry winning too plenty contacts so heart felt
No barren woman God resides here shy.

Thou doeth account an amount's sum astronomical!, to out sum mere plum - 1/1/24, 12:02am Wm. Irving ©

William Irving #182906
Digital Mail Center - Missouri DOC
P.O. Box 25678
Tampa, FL 33622-5678