

Honey, Why are you exalting yourself?
Does anyone else matter?

I want to quote something Lady Gaga said I thought was profound. Lady Gaga said "do not allow people to dim your shine because they are blinded. Tell them to put some sunglasses on." Another quote by Malala Yousafzai (education activist) speaks volumes to me. "I raise up my voice - not so that I can shout, but so that those without a voice can be heard... we cannot all succeed when half of us are held back"... ~~Remember~~ Remember none of us was as smart as all of us." - Ken Blanchard. I can't stand when people complain but don't do anything. But Shirley Chisholm said "you don't make progress by standing on the sidelines, whimpering and complaining. You make progress by implementing ideas." The atmosphere we are living in people will do anything to put the spotlight all on them. For example, have you ever been in your ~~own~~ own zone, enjoying the moment. Here comes Sally or Don pushing you completely out of the way. I've had people to lie on me, even start rumors. So they can get the spotlight on them. Now they are shining in the spotlight that God ordained me for. In my life time, I have seen talented people that should have won a competition, got the position or given a opportunity. All of certain you see people who are not that good in the competition win, or got the job and even was given a opportunity. For myself, I have been like wow! I can't believe this. Seems like I can't catch a break from the stereotyping,

The crime has been ran into a mud whole that keeps sinking to keep what they say is terrible violate offender behind the wall and to ~~execute~~ commit murder through a needle that's called <sup>legalize</sup> ~~execute~~ murder. Even on death row their institution record should matter. Because if their not a assaulting officer and staff when they are let out for a shower and yard call for a hour.

~~This is a manipulation in the report to keep~~ on the other hand, ~~for it's going to be~~ There are some States don't have a death penalty but they have a life sentence without parole. Certain States have once you come up to your 10 years ~~to~~ they decide whether you are eligible for parole on that life sentence. In the Georgia criminal system it's as if man has exalted himself to be God in lives of certain people. Certain people are not deservind of anything whether its Supreme Courts, trial, hearings etc. But laws says all deserve a fair chance at the law. Even the poor people. Often what you see in the criminal justice system is a weird ~~sys~~ operated system. Where it leaves the lowly person depressed and not knowing what to do because your back up against the wall by politician who has exalted themselves through egoism.

Even in the prison you have inmates that exalt themselves because they have something the next inmate don't have. It could be a store sack. On another hand, because they have a good detail. Man in the fleshly ego have deem themselves more important than they next individual. I am seeing alot fleshly exaltation amongst

Man on earth. Some people are suffering the same egoism in their community. When they are work hard in the community to bring everyone together. In fact you have the safest neighborhood and everybody's like family but Jane or Dan is always rewarded.
You are not never recognize for your hard work. Stop taking this person opportunity to shine.
You know you don't do nothing that is worthy of praise.

There are people out there who work hard on their jobs but yet to be promoted although they do deserve it. Egoism and stereotyping is hindering them through a supervisor. I am tired of people trying to exalt themselves and keep others in oppression by hindering those individuals or individual promotion that God has ordain for the people.

The concept dealing with people of today can be very weary and tired some of them see themselves on a pedestal and trying to knocking everyone else down to their level. Let me give you one final example, my next door neighbor cooking some microni. Well I don't have anything in my locker.
So she wouldn't dare ask me to cook her microni. But when I had a locker with food. I cooked microni for some. Instead she got my bunkmate to cook it for her who have locker full of food. Am I jealous no, but see how easy that exaltation was for my bunkmate and she gets to enjoy the fruit of microni that I should have been blessed with. Second the lady is white and bunkmate is white. See the stereotyping I don't have nothing I am poor.

This is the same scenario going on in our society in every aspect from the criminal justice, politics, communities our individual lives, jobs and for some people in the family. Written by Jennifer Johnson
